*We have an old Mother that peevish is grown,
She snubs us like Children that scarce walk alone;
She forgets we're grown up and have Sense of our own.*

Write a new stanza (set of lines) for “The Mother Country” to follow the ones printed above. Your stanza should include

- three lines that accurately describe an event that led to tensions between Britain and the colonies.
- the metaphor of mother and child.
- a rhyming pattern like that in the original lines.
- writing that is free from spelling and grammatical errors.
