

READING NOTES 10

Read Sections 10.3 through 10.8 in your book. After you read each section, match the illustration from Student Handout 10 with the historical event described in the section.

The Proclamation of 1763	In Metaphor	Parent concerned about child's safety	Child forbidden to leave yard
	In History
The Quartering Act	In Metaphor	Parent hires babysitter to watch child	Child doesn't like serving babysitter
	In History
The Stamp Act	In Metaphor	Parent requires child to pay for telephone use	Child upset about the new rule
	In History

Then write notes comparing the illustration with the history.

The Boston Massacre		The Boston Tea Party		The Intolerable Acts
In Metaphor	Child and baby-sitter argue	In History		In Metaphor	Child restricted to bedroom Child angry and defiant
In History		In Metaphor	Child doesn't like being forced to drink milk Child pours milk down the sink	In History	