

PROCESSING 11

Pretend you are a colonist who has just attended a debate on whether or not to declare independence from Britain. Write two letters, one to the panelist with whom you most agreed and one to the panelist with whom you most disagreed. Each letter should

- be dated.
- have a proper salutation (greeting).
- begin with a clear topic sentence that identifies your feelings about the figure's ideas on independence.
- mention at least two of the figure's arguments that you agree or disagree with.
- be free from spelling and grammatical errors.

A large, hand-drawn rectangular box with irregular, torn edges, intended for writing two letters. The box is empty and occupies most of the page below the instructions.
