

PROCESSING 17

Create three faces that express the feelings of different westerners about westward expansion. Each face should

- represent a person from one of the groups who lived in the West during the 1800s.
- include a voice bubble—consisting of three or four sentences—to describe what the individual might say to the question “Was your group helped or harmed by westward expansion? How?”
- include writing that is free from spelling and grammatical errors.