Create a comic book panel that shows a settler and a native person (Native American or Mexican) and their perspectives on U.S. westward expansion in the 1800s. Your comic book panel should include

- simple drawings that show the faces of a white settler and a native person.
- a two- or three-sentence voice bubble for the settler that explains some of the advantages of westward expansion in the 1800s.
- a two- or three-sentence voice bubble for the native person that explains some of the disadvantages of westward expansion in the 1800s.
- writing that is free from spelling and grammatical errors.
